1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Anthony J Campbell on November 18, 2004.

In the Claims:

Lines 5 and 9, "." has been changed to --;--. Claim 7. Line 10, "further comprising" has been changed to --and--.

Claim 8. Line 5, "." has been changed to --;--. Line 6, "further comprising" has been deleted. Line 8, "said side" has been changed to -- one of said opposing sides--.

Line 3, "said opposing side" has been changed to --other of said opposing sides--. Claim 12. Line 5, "said opposing side" has been changed to --other of said opposing sides--.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claim 7 is allowed because the prior art whether individually or in combination does not teach a headband protrusion having opposing ends with one end attached to the middle of the vertical portion in combination with all other features as claimed in claim 7. Claim 8 is allowed because the prior art whether individually or in combination does not suggest a hollow pouch having an open end and opposing sides removably enclosing the light source with one of the opposing sides of the pouch attached to a middle of a belt in combination with all'other features as claimed in claim 8. Claim 10 is allowed because the prior art whether individually or in combination does not suggest a hollow pouch having an open end and opposing sides with one of the opposing sides of the pouch attached to a middle of a belt, a light source removably enclosed by the pouch, a light transmitter having opposing ends with one end connected to the light source and the opposing end of the light transmitter connected to a lens assembly attached to the front of the headband. Claims 11 to 16 further limit claim 10 and as such are also allowed. Claim 17 is allowed because the prior art whether individually or in combination does not teach a belt having opposing ends and a middle attached to a clip, a light source removably connected to the middle
